Editor's Letter

Dubai is a city that never stands still. It is constantly evolving — through innovation, ambition, culture, and the people who continue to shape its future every day. The Next Dubai was created to capture that energy through a more thoughtful and modern lens. More than a media platform, it is a space dedicated to the stories, ideas, experiences, and movements defining the city today.

This magazine is an extension of that vision — bringing together the people, places, industries, and conversations shaping modern Dubai.

Welcome to The Next Dubai.

Misha Sheikh
Founder

KIRAN NADEEM KHAWAJA

REAL ESTATE LEADER • CEO • PHILANTHROPIST

She Built Her Future Alongside Dubai. Now, She's Building a Legacy Beyond It.

From starting as a real estate broker in 2007 to leading Fajar Realty, Kiran Nadeem Khawaja's journey reflects ambition shaped by resilience, integrity and a commitment to giving back. Nearly two decades later, her vision extends beyond Dubai's property market.

A CITY OF POSSIBILITIES

When Kiran Nadeem Khawaja first arrived in Dubai, the city was still taking shape as a global destination. Dubai Marina, where she initially lived, looked very different from the neighbourhood people know today.

> At that time, there were hardly any people and hardly any buildings and that gave me an insight as to how beautiful the leadership wants to make Dubai, a world-class city.

She entered real estate in 2007 as a broker, recognising an opportunity in a city attracting investors from around the world. The early years taught her to navigate changing markets, understand clients and build relationships. Working with established developers, including DAMAC, Azizi and Emaar, further shaped her industry experience.

FROM BROKER TO FOUNDER

In 2020, Kiran founded Fajar Realty, bringing her experience and business philosophy into a company of her own. Her approach centred on transparency, professional service and relationships that extend beyond a single transaction.

> We owe our success to our ability to be transparent to the clients, whichever the market may be

she says, crediting client confidence and referrals for the company's growth.

Under her leadership, Fajar Realty has developed a client-focused approach, with an emphasis on ethical practices, innovation and people development. She also promotes equal opportunities for women and encourages emerging professionals to become future industry leaders.

For Kiran, leadership is as much about developing people as it is about growing a business.

A CAREER OF RECOGNITION

Her work has earned recognition across the business and real estate sectors. Accolades include Top Female CEO of the Year at the Global Saga Awards in 2024, Most Promising Real Estate Icon at the India International Influencer Awards in 2025, and Asia Business Outlook's Top 10 Most Promising Global Leaders from Pakistan in 2023.

Fajar Realty has also received recognition from DAMAC, Azizi and Emaar, alongside the MENAA Leadership Award in 2023.

Yet her outlook remains focused on the work ahead.

> You need to keep moving forward no matter what happens; stand up each time you fall.

BEYOND DUBAI

With its presence established in the UAE, Fajar Realty is looking towards international growth. Its expansion plans include Kigali, Rwanda, as an entry point into the African market, with two additional countries in sight for 2026–27.

The ambition is to take the company's values into new markets while maintaining the transparency and client trust behind its growth.

SUCCESS WITH A WIDER PURPOSE

Beyond business, philanthropy remains central to Kiran's idea of success. She supports more than 75 charitable initiatives, spanning girls' education, cancer hospitals, orphanages and old-age homes. Her work also includes supporting villages in Pakistan, with a focus on educational opportunities for girls.

She traces a deeper shift in her perspective to performing Hajj.

> When God has given me so much, why don't I give back to society?

She believes educating a girl can transform not only her future but that of an entire family.

A LEGACY IN PROGRESS

Her advice to her younger self is simple: trust the process, remain patient, embrace challenges and never compromise integrity for short-term success.

As Fajar Realty prepares for its next chapter, Kiran's ambitions remain rooted in the values that shaped her journey.

She didn't just witness Dubai's transformation. She built her legacy alongside it.

A beachfront destination bringing together upscale dining, stylish beach clubs and leisurely escapes by the sea.

STAYCATION of THE MONTH

ATLANTIS THE ROYAL, DUBAI

Next-level dining, aquatic delights and luxury living on Palm Jumeirah.

Ranked sixth on the World's 50 Best Hotels list in December 2025, up from ninth the year before, Atlantis The Royal proves a staycation can feel like a faraway escape.

A TOWER, REIMAGINED

On Palm Jumeirah, the hotel's blocks stretch sideways across 500 metres of beachfront instead of simply rising up. All 795 rooms, suites and penthouses look out over the skyline and the Arabian Gulf, and 44 of them have private infinity pools.

STAY FOR THE EVENING SHOW

Hans Zimmer's Diamond in the Desert, a four-and-a-half-minute performance, lights up the Skyblaze Fountain Show each evening, with water, fire and light moving to the music.

THE WORLD'S GREAT KITCHENS, UNDER ONE ROOF

No other hotel in the world has more celebrity chef restaurants. Try Dinner by Heston Blumenthal, Greek flavours at Estiatorio Milos, Peruvian seafood at La Mar by Gastón Acurio, or Nobu by the Beach. Signature restaurants, lounges and cafes fill the rest of the menu, so there's always something new to taste.

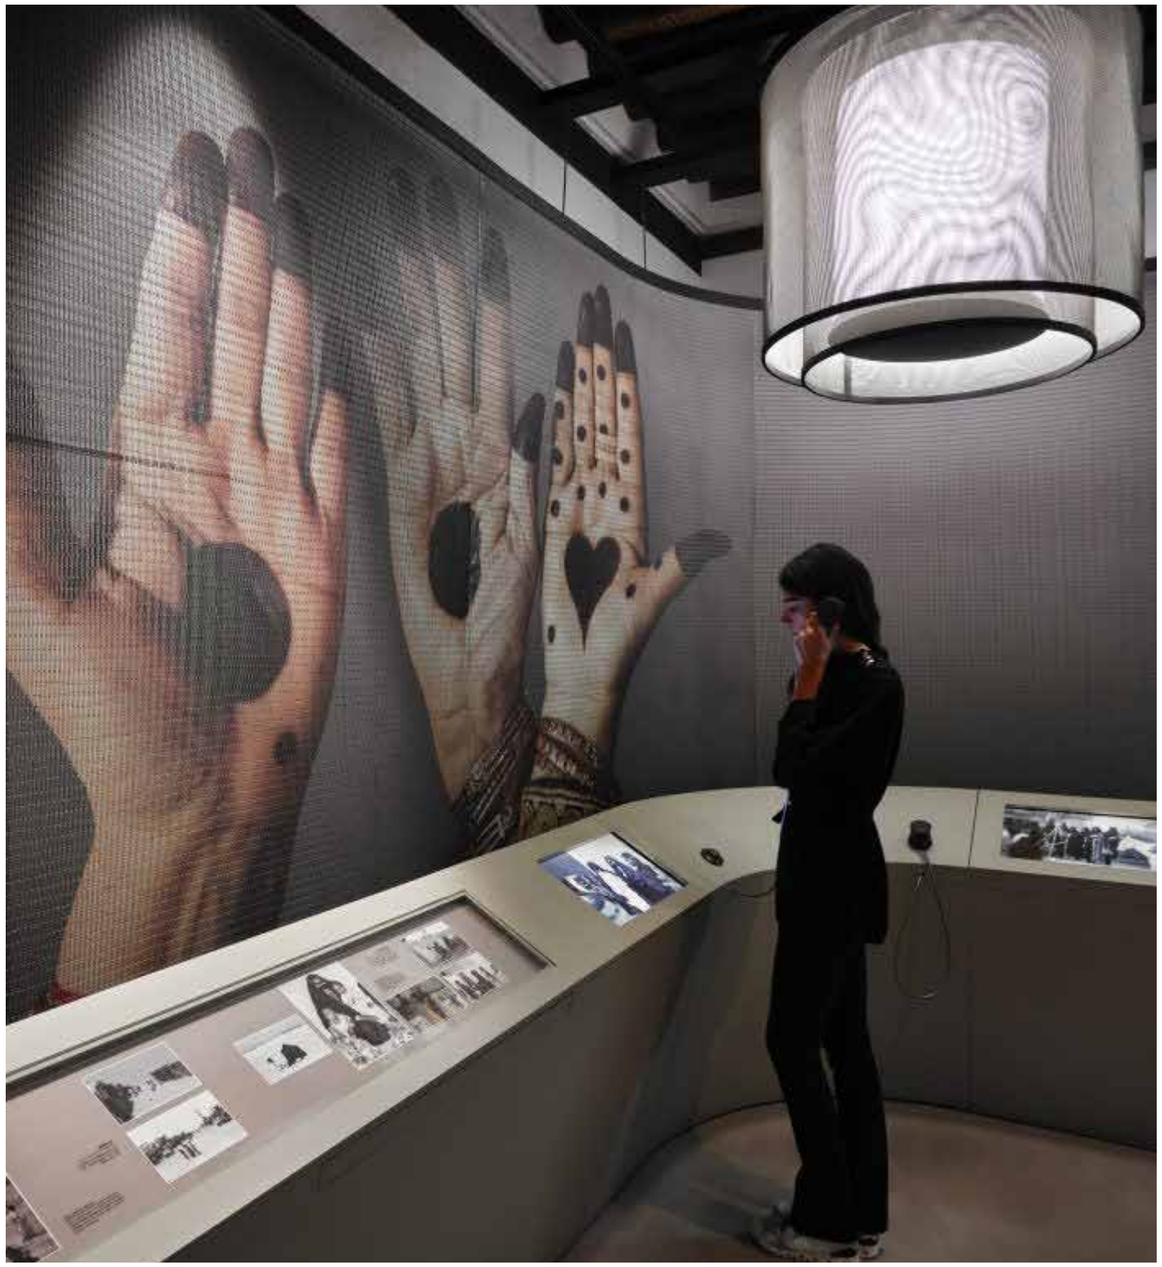

SWIM WITH A VIEW

With more than 90 pools, including the Cloud 22 rooftop infinity pool, and the world's largest jellyfish aquarium, water is part of everything here.

The best staycations change how a familiar city feels. Here, the skyline, the Gulf and the table are all part of the stay, and they give residents a fresh way to see Dubai.

HERITAGE ICON

AL SHINDAGHA MUSEUM
A Walk Through Dubai’s Early Days

THE STORY BEGINS AT THE CREEK

Before the skyline, there was the Creek. On its banks, in the old neighbourhood of Shindagha, Dubai’s story began. Al Shindagha Museum, reopened by Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum in March 2023, is the UAE’s largest heritage museum.

A NEIGHBOURHOOD, NOT JUST A BUILDING

Twenty-two pavilions and 80 historic houses sit across an open-air area of more than 310,000 square metres. Together they trace life in Dubai from the 19th century to the 1970s.

WHERE EVERY ROOM TELLS A STORY

The Al Maktoum Residence shows how a ruling family helped shape a small trading port. Along the Creek, you meet the birth of a city that gave Dubai its first bank, first police house and first produce market. The Perfume House celebrates a craft still close to Emirati life. The craft, jewellery and food exhibits show how people once lived, dressed and ate. The Culture of the Sea honours a maritime history that stretches back more than 7,000 years.

HERITAGE FOR LITTLE ONES

The Children’s House turns history into play, with traditional Emirati games to try.

A MESSAGE TO THE WORLD

At the reopening, Sheikh Mohammed said,

> We want the world to know Dubai’s story and its history

In a city that moves this fast, the museum offers a quiet gift: a place to slow down, look back, and understand where all the towers came from.

04 THE NEXT ECONOMY

Real Estate, Investment & Government

DUBAI'S RENTAL MARKET IS SPLITTING IN TWO

A wave of new housing supply is reshaping Dubai's rental landscape, creating opportunities for new tenants while putting pressure on renewing residents.

NEW TENANTS FIND BETTER VALUE

Dubai's rental market is entering a new phase, with new tenants finding better value while existing residents face rising renewal costs. Increased housing supply and stronger competition among landlords are reshaping rental trends.

NEW LEASES, LOWER RENTS

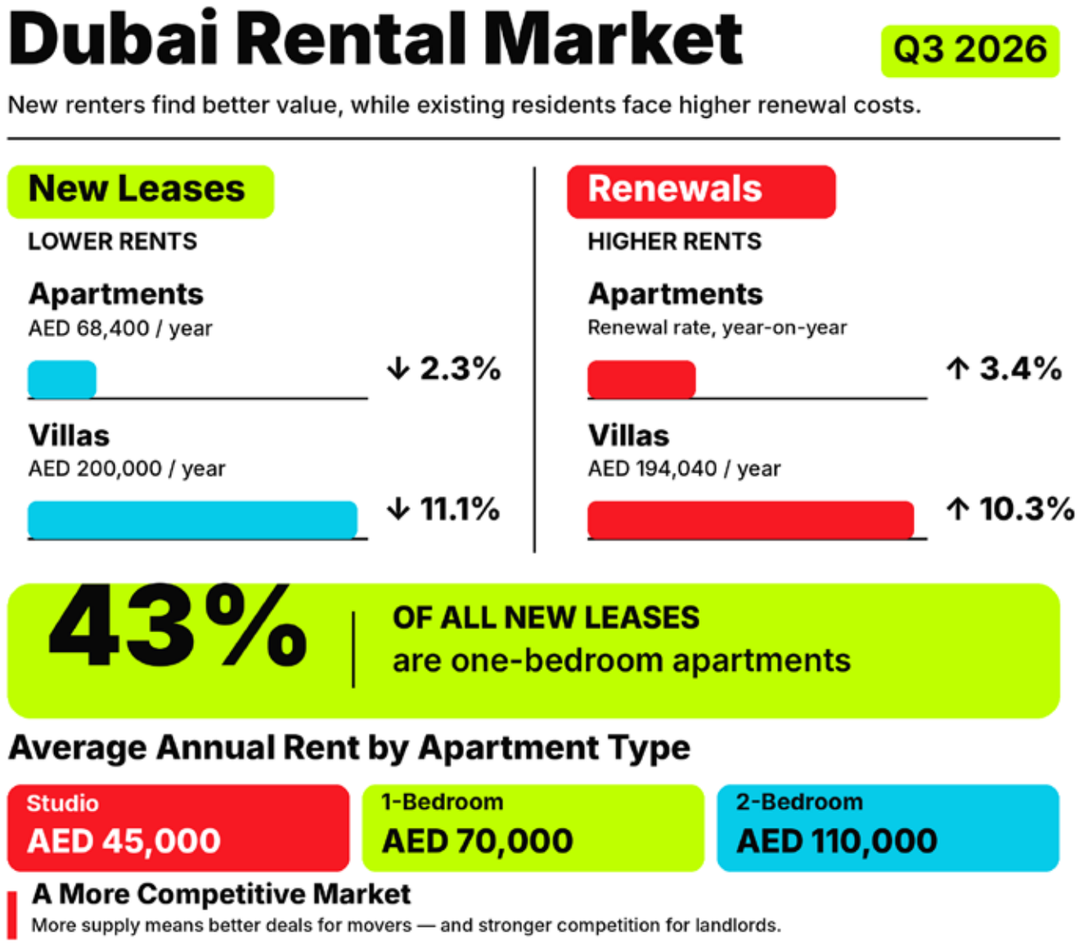

In Q3 2026, average annual rents for new apartment contracts fell 2.3% year-on-year to AED 68,400, while villa rents dropped 11.1% to AED 200,000. Meanwhile, renewed apartment rents rose 3.4%, and villa renewals climbed

ONE-BEDROOM APARTMENTS LEAD DEMAND

One-bedroom apartments remain the most popular choice, accounting for 43% of new leases, with an average annual rent of AED 70,000. Studios average AED 45,000, while two-bedroom apartments average AED 110,000.

A MORE COMPETITIVE MARKET

The shift reflects a market increasingly shaped by new residential supply and value-conscious tenants. For renters, moving may offer greater savings than renewing, while landlords face growing pressure to price competitively.

DUBAI AWARDS GOLDEN VISAS TO OUTSTANDING EDUCATORS
Recognising the people shaping the next generation

HONOURING EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION

Announced on 5 October 2026, under the directives of Sheikh Hamdan bin Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Crown Prince of Dubai, the initiative recognises exceptional educators across early childhood centres, schools and higher education institutions.

SUPPORTING EDUCATION 33

Aligned with Dubai's Education 33 (E33) strategy, the programme aims to attract and retain top talent, improve student learning experiences and strengthen Dubai's global education standing.

WHO CAN QUALIFY?

Candidates are assessed on academic qualifications, professional achievements, community contributions and feedback from parents and students. Eligible educators must demonstrate excellence, improve educational quality and positively impact student outcomes.

INVESTING IN FUTURE GENERATIONS

The initiative reinforces Dubai's commitment to recognising educators as key partners in building a stronger education system and shaping future generations.

MARKET SPOTLIGHT

DUBAI RECORDS 86 $10M+ HOME SALES IN Q3

Palm Jumeirah leads luxury deals as prime property prices record their first quarterly decline since 2020.

LUXURY MARKET IN FOCUS

Dubai recorded 86 home sales worth 10 million or more in Q3 2026, totalling Dh5.77billion (1.57 billion), according to Knight Frank.

Sales fell 34% from Q2, while prime property prices declined 5% amid regional uncertainty.

PALM JUMEIRAH LEADS

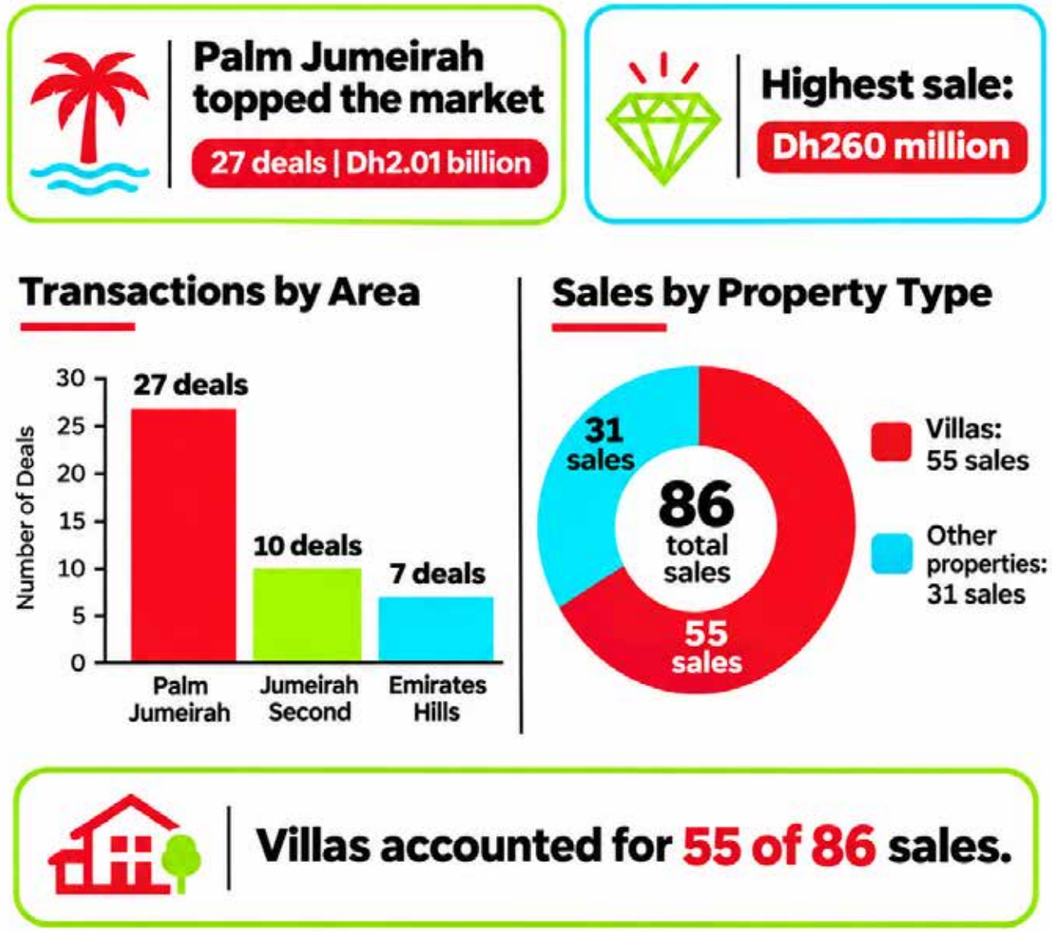

Palm Jumeirah topped the market with 27 deals worth Dh2.01 billion. The quarter's highest sale reached Dh260 million.

Jumeirah Second recorded 10 transactions, followed by Emirates Hills with seven. Villas accounted for 55 of the 86 sales.

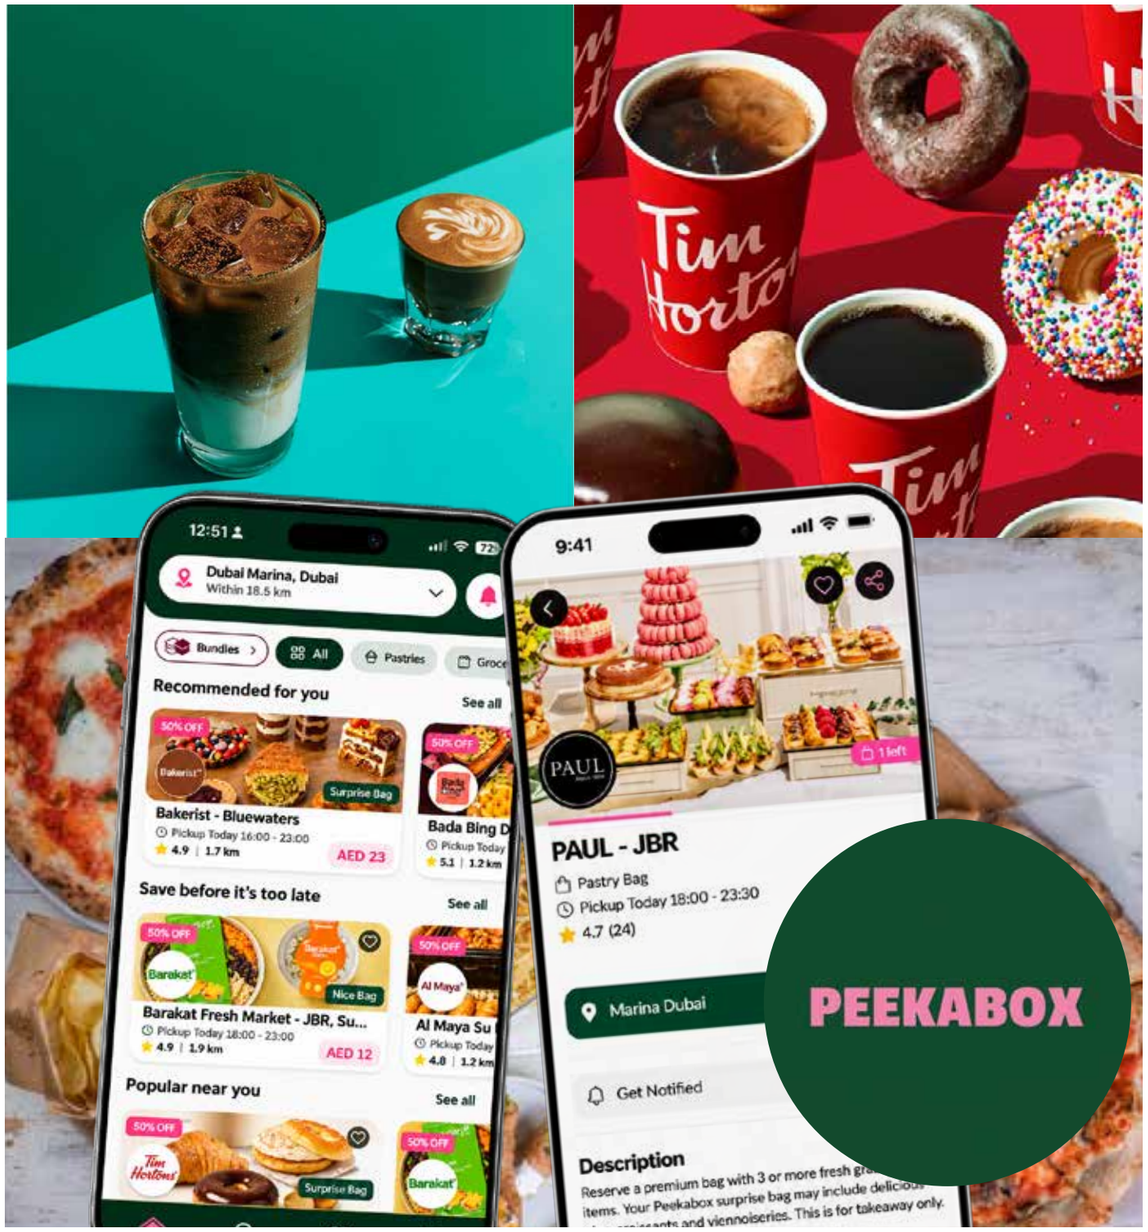

ULTRA-LUXURY REMAINS ACTIVE

Thirteen homes sold for over $25 million, generating Dh1.84 billion — nearly 32% of total sales value.

Despite softer prices, Dubai's ultra-prime market continues to attract high-value buyers.

05 SMART DUBAI
INNOVATION, APPS & EDUCATION

PEEKABOX: DUBAI'S SMART WAY TO SAVE FOOD AND MONEY
Surprise food boxes, big discounts and less waste, all through one app.

A SMARTER WAY TO SAVE ON FOOD

Dubai-founded Peekabox helps cafés, bakeries, restaurants and grocery stores sell surplus food instead of letting it go to waste.

Founded by brothers Hasan and Omair Sarwar, the app lets users buy surprise boxes of freshly prepared or packaged food and collect them directly from partner stores.

YOUR FAVOURITE SPOTS, FOR LESS

With 1,000+ partner stores across 50+ brands, including Costa Coffee, Tim Hortons, Carrefour and Krispy Kreme, there's plenty to discover.

Boxes worth AED 60–90 can cost around AED 30, with the app also tracking your savings and estimated carbon emissions avoided.

A small change in how we shop for food could make a meaningful difference.

THE KNOWLEDGE ECONOMY

DUBAI LAUNCHES AI LEARNING PLATFORM FOR FAMILIES

Helping parents and children navigate AI safely and confidently.

AI LEARNING STARTS AT HOME

Launched on 14 October 2026, GenDubAI helps parents and children aged 8–15 learn to use AI safely and responsibly. The platform was introduced by the Dubai Centre for Artificial Intelligence, alongside the Community Development Authority and Dubai Future Foundation.

LEARNING TOGETHER

Available in Arabic and English, it offers interactive lessons and practical guidance to build children's creativity, critical thinking and digital awareness while helping parents understand AI's risks and benefits.

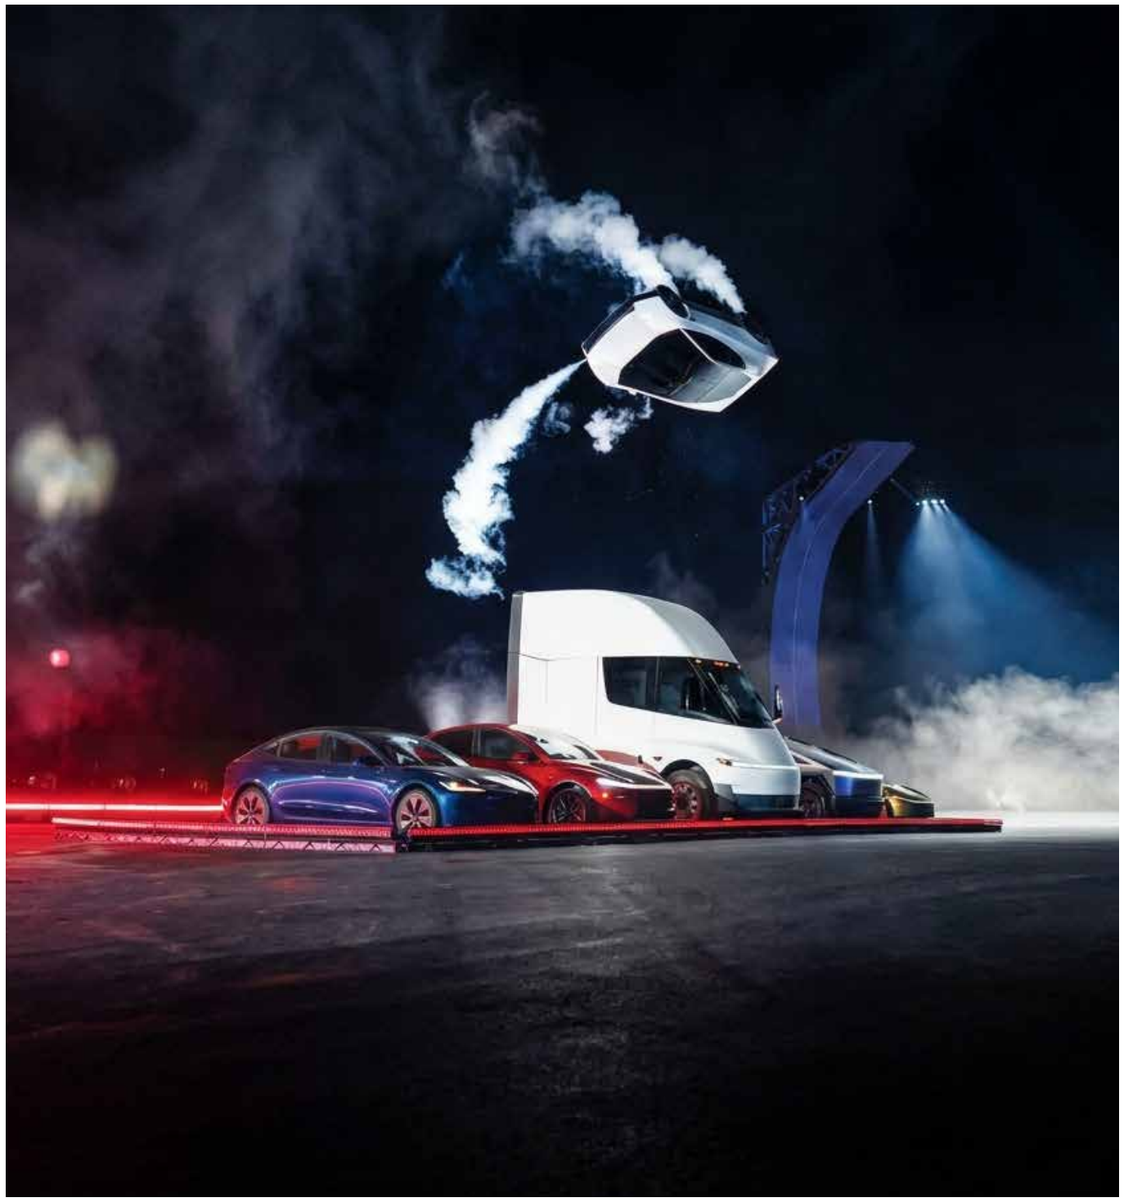

PREPARING FOR THE FUTURE

Aligned with Dubai's Social Agenda 33 and the UAE's Year of the Family, GenDubAI encourages families to explore AI together while keeping cultural values at the forefront.

TESLA'S FLYING ROADSTER: UAE RESERVATIONS OPEN
Rocket-powered acceleration, futuristic design and a flying concept.

Tesla's next-generation Roadster takes electric performance to another level. Following its October 2026 demonstration in Texas, UAE reservations are open for two variants, while its flying version remains invite-only.

PERFORMANCE: BUILT FOR THE ROAD

The standard Roadster features active aerodynamics and a suction system designed to improve grip and handling. Reservations require a Dh20,000 deposit, followed by Dh190,000 within 10 days.

THRUST: SPEED IN UNDER A SECOND

The performance variant adds acceleration thrusters, with Tesla claiming it can reach 100 km/h in under a second. Buyers pay a Dh20,000 deposit, followed by Dh1 million within 10 days.

ROCKET: THE FLYING VERSION

The most futuristic version uses cold-gas thrusters to lift and manoeuvre in the air. It remains invite-only and is not approved for public roads.

WHEN CAN YOU GET ONE?

Production is expected to begin in 2028, although final prices and delivery dates are yet to be confirmed.

For now, the Roadster offers a glimpse of what electric performance could look like beyond the road.

BEAUTY, WELLNESS & PERFORMANCE

DR. MARINA AISINA
The Woman Behind Lips for Kiss

From aesthetic medicine to building an international beauty brand, Dr. Marina Aisina has developed a distinctive approach centred on precision, individuality and refined results.

WHERE DUBAI GOES FOR BEAUTY

Lips for Kiss is an international aesthetic brand founded by Dr. Marina Aisina, combining advanced aesthetic medicine, signature techniques and personalised care. With clinics in Dubai, Moscow City and London, the brand has grown from a clinical vision into a global beauty platform.

THE RUSSIAN LIPS SIGNATURE

Dr. Aisina is known for the Russian Lips technique, a defining part of the Lips for Kiss approach. Her work has expanded into Hollywood Face and Full Face protocols, focusing on facial harmony, structure, skin quality and results tailored to individual anatomy.

BEYOND THE CLINIC

Her work now extends across treatment, education and professional beauty. Through LFK Academy, Dr. Aisina trains aesthetic practitioners internationally through hands-on masterclasses and online education.

The academy currently reports 70,000+ students and 5,000+ masterclasses, while her wider work includes professional skincare, signature techniques and training programmes.

A PHILOSOPHY OF INDIVIDUALITY

For Dr. Aisina, aesthetics is not about creating one definition of beauty. It is about enhancing individuality, building confidence and bringing out what makes each person unique.

FASHION, CULTURE & INFLUENCE

WORLD ART FASHION WEEK RETURNS TO DUBAI
Bringing fashion, art and culture together under the theme “Touch the Sky.”
17–20 December 2026 | Souk Madinat Jumeirah

BEYOND FASHION

World Art Fashion Week returns to Dubai with its Philosophy Edition, themed “Touch the Sky”, bringing together designers, artists and creative communities to explore fashion beyond trends.

GET INVOLVED

Designers, fashion brands and creative partners are invited to participate. Registration for the December edition closes on 17 November 2026.

More than a fashion showcase, the event brings culture and creativity together on one international stage.

A GLOBAL CREATIVE STAGE

Taking place at TODA Digital Art Theatre, the event celebrates cultural heritage, artistic expression and international collaboration. Its vision is to connect traditions with contemporary design while creating opportunities for emerging talent.

CELEBRATING NEW TALENT

The International Designers Competition and World Designers Awards will spotlight promising designers, with ten finalists set to present their collections on the Dubai runway. Fashion icon Professor Jimmy Choo OBE will attend as guest of honour and personally select the winner.

DUBAI FASHION WEEK HIGHLIGHTS

22–26 OCTOBER 2026 | DUBAI DESIGN DISTRICT (D3)

FIVE DAYS ON THE RUNWAY

Dubai Fashion Week’s Spring/Summer 2027 edition wrapped up after five days of runway shows, new collections and industry events, bringing regional and international designers into the spotlight.

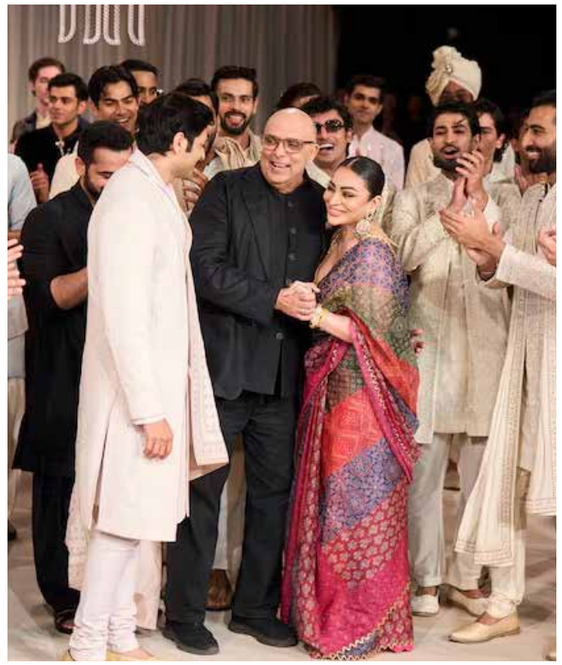

STANDOUT MOMENTS

The week opened with Paris-based Ludovic de Saint Sernin and Kuwaiti designer Yousef AlJasmi, whose crystal-embellished looks set a striking tone. Collections by Sara Pedram, KEL’, Adriana Capasso and Emirati label Onori added further variety to the runway.

A STAR-STUDDED FINALE

Indian couturier Tarun Tahiliani brought the event to a close with The Many Moods of Tarun Tahiliani, featuring Lebanese singer Maya Diab.

BEYOND THE SHOWS

Alongside the runway, showroom appointments, industry panels and retail activations connected designers with the wider fashion business.

A week that reflected Dubai’s growing influence as a meeting point for global fashion and regional creativity.
